Watsessing Notes.

In the event of Alderman Joseph W. Ellor declining to be a candidate for that office there will be a lively scramble among the numerous aspirants for the Republican nomination. John Hibbins, Daniel Wilson, James Bertenshaw, "Chinny" Walker, George Griffin, and several others are in the field. If Mr. Ellor will consent to run there is of course no use of the others holding up their heads next to Mr. Ellor. Mr. Griffin is said to be in the lead and almost sure of the nomination.

Edward Hart has retired from politics. and will hereafter devote his attention to business.

The annual meeting of the Trustees of the Watsessing Free Public Library will be held on Wednesday night.

The Riverside Athletic Club has chalenged the Watsessing Field Club to a boxing tournament.

Jesse Wilson, the one-armed member of the Watsessing Field Club, is a good pool player and a hard hitter with the glove. He is more than a match for many of the members, both at the pool table and with the gloves.

Stories about young men playing poker all night for money at a club-house in Watsessing does not refer to the Watsessing Field Club. No gambling of any description is allowed at that club. The poker-playing is carried on at another club-house. The biggest game is generally played on Saturday night and runs far into Sunday morning. On Sunday evenings the young men go to church with their girls. Some of them have graduated from Sunday-school.

James Albinson will build a real estate office and carpenter shop on Orange Street, opposite the Watsessing station.

Two magnificent contributions have been made towards the Berean Baptist Sunday-school building fund, one of $1,000 and another of $500. The names of the donors have not been made public.

The Watsessing Women's Christian Temperance Union is going to furnish diet of the large assemblage was that Temperance Hall with a carpet and easy | this last concert was the best that has chairs and a lounge.

Young People's Guild of St. Paul's P. E. Church. Of this sum $100 was turned over to Treasurer Kerr of the church and the remainder retained in the treasury of the Guild. Over $28 was made from the sale of candy, which was all home-made. In addition to the young ladies mentioned last week as contributing to the success of the pink tea should be mentioned, Carrie Baldwin, Mabel Lee, Helen McKenna, Jennie C. Wilde, the Misses Etta Christopherson, Mattie

Lee, and Florence Butterworth. A building fund has been started in St. Paul's P. E. Church.

They Will be in Clover.

There is great cause for rejoicing Mrs. P. R Shepherd of New Brunswick among the "Sous of Rest." The new hotel, "The Essex," is to be opened shortly and among its promised attractions will be a bountifully supplied free lunch served fresh and hot every day. The "Sons of Rest" anticipate a rivalry between the Essex and the American House. The attractions at one house will be offset by attractions January 6. The "Crib" is a portrayal at the other. No class in the community will appreciate epmpetition in the free-lunch line so keenly as the "Sons of Rest." They are looking forward with joyous expectancy to the day of feasting. They will exert themselves to stimulate the rivalry. This is to be the

THE REFUSED NOTE.

A Rumor That the Action of the Bank Directors is Sustained by Chancellor

The Board of Directors of the Bloomfield National Bank were very much exercised over the publicity given last week to the proceedings of one of their meetings at which important matters were discussed. The bank will be recaulked and all leak-holes carefully plugged.

After the meeting of Friday, the 22d inst., Dr. Harry E. Richards counsel for the bank, is said to have gone direct to ex-Chancellor Runyon and laid the facts of the case before him. He was followed by Town Counsel Halsey M. Barrett, who also had an interview with the ex-Chan- it is safe to predict that it is but the be-

A special meeting of the Committee will be held on Monday, at which ways and means for raising money to meet the expense of constructing the sewer will probably be discussed.

THE MADRIGAL SOCIETY. Another Success Scored at Its Third

The third concert under the auspices of the Madrigal Society was given on Wednesday night in the First Presbyterian Church. The concert was the opening one of the season of 1892-93, and was a brilliant success. The large church was crowded. There was a full attendance of the active members of the society. C. Wenham Smith, the able conductor, was in his place. The soloists were Miss Marcelona Gonzales, Soprano, and Dr. Carl E. Dufft, Baritone, and the Violiniste, Miss Lillian Parslow. Mrs. Chas. W. Martin and C. Wenham Smith were accompanists. The soloists of the evening, Miss Gonzales and Dr. Dufft, are well known to the musical community of this town. They were received with the usual hearty applause and enthusas ically encored. Miss Parslow, the violiniste, proved herself an unusually fine musician. The singing of the Madrigal Society was excellent indeed, and the unanimous ver-

There was an enthusiastic gathering at the Olympic on Tuesday night when the Montclair High School bowling team and the Olympic juniors met to do battle with the big balls. The friends of both teams were out in full force and encour aged them with vigorous applause. The Montelairs were bowled down two out of three games. Barnes of the Olympic led in the scores. He made five strikes and five spares in the first game. Following are the scores :
